Research Library Trends

ARL Statistics 2007-2008 is the latest in a series of annual publications that describe collections, staffing, expenditures, and service activities for the 123 members of the Association of Research Libraries (ARL). Of these, 113 are university libraries; the remaining 10 are public, governmental, and nonprofit research libraries. ARL member libraries are the largest research libraries in North America, representing 16 Canadian and 107 US research institutions. The academic libraries, which comprise about $92 \%$ of the membership, include 14 Canadian and 99 US libraries.

Statistics have been collected and published annually for the members of the Association of Research Libraries since 1961-1962, and the data are available through an interactive Web interface. Prior to 1961-1962, annual statistics for university libraries were collected by James Gerould, first at the University of Minnesota and later at Princeton University. ${ }^{1}$ These data, covering the years 1907-1908 through 1961-1962, are now called the Gerould statistics. ${ }^{2}$ The whole data series from 1908, which is available on the ARL server, ${ }^{3}$ represents the oldest and most comprehensive continuing library statistical series in North America.

ARL libraries are a relatively small subset of libraries in North America, but they do account for a large portion of academic library resources in terms of assets, budgets, and the number of users they serve. The total library expenditures of all 123 member libraries in 2007-2008 was more than $$ 4$ billion; from that, roughly $$ 3$ billion was spent by the 113 university libraries and more than $$ 1$ billion by the nonuniversity libraries. The pie charts below show how the two types of libraries divide these expenditures differently.

Change in Counting Serials

For the second year in a row the definition of counting serials in the ARL Statistics is now counting serial titles. As a result the trend line of publishing serial cost per subscription is being discontinued and eventually a new one will emerge as we collect annual data on serial titles. This change, though simple at first glance, is very important as it makes the concept of serials more meaningful in the electronic environment.

What prompted this change? In earlier years the instructions for reporting serials were that libraries report the "total number of subscriptions, not titles, but electronic serials acquired as part of an aggregated package (such as MUSE or Academic's IDEAL) were to be counted by title." Directors and other staff have expressed concern that the serials count was problematic since many libraries engage in multiple consortia arrangements and the serials count was inflated by duplicate titles held in multiple packages. The Statistics and Assessment Committee determined that a new way of counting serials focusing on titles would provide better descriptive data reflecting the true scope of the content provided by research libraries. A pilot at various ARL libraries demonstrated the feasibility of the new method.

In the electronic environment once you own or lease a title, it is often accessible by all users so a more authentic descriptive statistic for the scope of the content is titles rather than subscriptions. A unique title count favors broader coverage. Any duplication of those titles through packages, aggregations, bundles, etc., becomes more a management issue. The new definition asks that titles be reported as electronic if available both in print and electronic formats and they be reported as purchased if available both through purchased and non-purchased arrangements. So, if a title appears in both print and electronic form and a library has acquired it through several different providers, it would be counted as one title. Training events were delivered last fall to ensure that there is a well-grounded, shared understanding of the new definitions.

The outcome has been successful as we have more libraries reporting serials titles than they ever managed to report serial subscriptions indicating that the new definition is moving us into the right direction of having data that are both collectable and useful. However, we had to delete all earlier trend lines that were based on serial subscriptions. A variety of resources have been developed for libraries to consult as they implemented the change and they are available through http://www.arl.org/stats/annualsurveys/arlstats/07statmail.shtml.

This year, 2007-2008, we changed the categories of serials reported under "serials titles currently received but not purchased." The subcategories are now: (a) consortial, (b) freely accessible, (c) print (and other formats) - exchanges, gifts, etc., and (d) government documents. These categories are more meaningful in the context of "serials titles received" as they emphasize major components of that concept.

Table 1 presents data about select public service activities such as circulation (initial and total), reference transactions, library instruction (group presentations and participants in these presentations), and interlibrary borrowing and lending. As seen in table 1, the median of group presentations dropped again during 2007-2008. However, the number of participants increased with a median of 15,480 for the typical research library. Perhaps what is of most interest is that by 2008 there were more than double the participants compared to 1991, while there is only a 20 percent difference in the number of students between 1991 and 2008 (see Graph 1).

Graph 2 displays the skyrocketing expenditures for serials (in comparison to monograph expenditures). Note that Table 2 and Graph 2 have been revised since 2005-2006 and no longer include Serial Unit Cost or Serial Subscriptions. Beginning with 2006-2007, ARL libraries are reporting unduplicated counts of serial titles rather than subscriptions.

Interlibrary borrowing and lending, which showed a marked growth in the last decade, has continued to increase in 20072008. Monographs purchased in 2007-2008 are even with 1986 levels.

Operating expenditures, including many automation expenditures, have doubled since 1986, but have remained at relatively stable levels of investment. The total salary expenditures median has increased only slightly over the past four years (average rate of 4\%). Monograph expenditures continue to increase, but in 2007-2008 have increased at a lower rate than the consumer price index (CPI). The annual consumer price index, included in Graph 4, provides a comparative reference for the increases in library expenditures.

In 2007-2008, ARL libraries acquired $60 \%$ fewer monographs per student than purchased in 1986. Libraries reported fewer staff per student in 2008 as compared to 1986: in 2008, there was a median number of 11 total staff per 1,000 students, compared to the 1986 figure of 16 per 1,000.

Table 6

Electronic Resources Expenditures in ARL University Libraries, 2007-2008

|  | Sum | Number Reporting |
| :---: | :---: | :---: |
| Expenditures for Computer Files (one-time/monographic purchase) | $73,102,024 | 108 |
| Expenditures for Electronic Serials | $554,880,484 | 110 |
| Expenditures for Bibliographic Utilities, Networks, etc. (Library) | $23,667,883 | 103 |
| Expenditures for Bibliographic Utilities, Networks, etc. (External) | $21,079,241 | 87 |
| Expenditures for Hardware and Software | $79,507,314 | 110 |
| Expenditures for Document Delivery/Interlibrary Loan | $14,027,391 | 108 |

Table 6 contains data on several items which previously had been collected only in the ARL Supplementary Statistics. These data are especially useful because they reflect monies spent on all electronic serials, while the ARL Statistics categories of "serials purchased" and "serials expenditures" include only those journals that provide full-text electronic versions to their subscribers. The Expenditures for Electronic Serials time series may be viewed as an alternative to the Serials Purchased series, both figures reflecting in their own way the influence the electronic serial is gaining in the modern research library.

Not only have electronic materials expenditures grown sharply in the past decade, they have grown at a rate far exceeding that of library materials expenditures overall. As shown in Graph 6, in every year of the last decade electronic materials expenditures have grown sharply, anywhere between two and ten times faster than other materials expenditures have.

The average ARL university library now spends $51 \%$ of its materials budget on electronic resources (Tables 7A and 7B) and 68 ARL libraries report that they spent more than $50 \%$ of their materials budget on electronic resources (see Rank Order Table 20).

ARL Statistics Interactive Edition

The ARL Statistics are available through an interactive edition on the Web, supplementing previously available data from 1992-1993. Maintained and supported by the Geospatial and Statistical Data Center at the University of Virginia, this site offers researchers access to ARL Statistics with documentation. ${ }^{1}$

Note that currently the site is aging and tables have not been updated with the latest data. ARL Index data are erroneous. Updated index data may be found at http://www.arl.org/stats/index/index.shtml. We do have plans to migrate the site to a new platform at ARL during 2009-2010.

The site offers maps and graphics depicting library trends. The interactive pages also include options for regional aggregates, customized samples of observations, simple rank order tabulations of data, and the ability to create ratios of any two variables. These and other capabilities are located at http://fisher.lib.virginia.edu/arl/.

The ARL Statistics datafiles since 1908 can be retrieved in spreadsheet format from http://www.arl.org/stats/ annualsurveys/arlstats/mrstat.shtml.

The ARL Statistics and Measurement Program Web site is located at http://www.arl.org/stats/.

Analysis of Selected Variables of University Libraries, 2007-2008

The percentages and ratios below are select indicators that describe the condition of ARL university libraries. The high and low figures indicate the range, while the mean and median indicate the central tendency of the distributions for ARL university libraries. Note that a distribution is normal when the mean and the median figures are identical. If the mean is larger than the median then the distribution is positively skewed, and if the opposite is true the distribution is negatively skewed.

ARL Statistics Questionnaire, 2007-2008

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THE QUESTIONNAIRE

General Instructions

Definitions of statistical categories can be found in NISO Z39.7-2004, Information Services and Use: Metrics $\mathcal{E}$ statistics for libraries and information providers--Data Dictionary (http://www.niso.org/). ARL has been modifying the interpretation of the standard definitions to address questions posed by library staff at various member institutions that complete the survey and with feedback from the ARL Statistics and Assessment Committee (http://www.arl.org/stats/program/ meeting.html).

Please do not use decimals. All figures should be rounded to the nearest whole number.
Please respond to every question. If an exact figure cannot be provided, use NA/UA to indicate that the figure is either unavailable or not applicable. If the appropriate answer is zero or none, use $\mathbf{0}$.

Although the form allows for data to be entered from both main and branch campuses, an effort should be made to report figures for the main campus only. (The US National Center for Education Statistics, Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS) defines a branch institution as "a campus or site of an educational institution that is not temporary, is located in a community beyond a reasonable commuting distance from its parent institution, and offers organized programs of study, not just courses.") If figures for libraries located at branch campuses are reported, please specify which branch libraries are included and which ones are excluded in the notes below.

A branch library is defined as an auxiliary library service outlet with quarters separate from the central library of an institution, which has a basic collection of books and other materials, a regular staffing level, and an established schedule. A branch library is administered either by the central library or (as in the case of some law and medical libraries) through the administrative structure of other units within the university. Departmental study/reading rooms are not included.

The questionnaire assumes a fiscal year ending June 30, 2008. If your fiscal year is different, please indicate this in the notes below by adjusting the reporting period.

Footnotes. Explanatory footnotes will be included with the published statistics. Provide any notes you may have in the footnotes area at the end of the survey. Reporting libraries are urged to record there any information that would clarify the figures submitted in that line, e.g., the inclusion and exclusion of branch campus libraries. Please make an effort to word your footnotes in a manner consistent with notes appearing in the published report, so that the ARL Office can interpret your footnotes correctly.

Specific Instructions

Question 1. Volumes in Library. Use the ANSI/NISO Z39.7-2004 definition for volume as follows:
a single physical unit of any printed, typewritten, handwritten, mimeographed, or processed work, distinguished from other units by a separate binding, encasement, portfolio, or other clear distinction, which has been cataloged, classified, and made ready for use, and which is typically the unit used to charge circulation transactions. Either a serial volume is bound, or it comprises the serial issues that would be bound together if the library bound all serials.

Include duplicates and bound volumes of periodicals. For purposes of this questionnaire, unclassified bound serials arranged in alphabetical order are considered classified. Exclude microforms, maps, nonprint materials, and uncataloged items. If any of these items cannot be excluded, please provide an explanatory footnote

Include government document volumes that are accessible through the library's catalogs regardless of whether they are separately shelved. "Classified" includes documents arranged by Superintendent of Documents, CODOC, or similar numbers. "Cataloged" includes documents for which records are provided by the library or downloaded from other sources into the library's card or online catalogs. Documents should, to the extent possible, be counted as they would if they were in bound volumes (e.g., 12 issues of an annual serial would be one or two volumes). Title and piece counts should not be considered the same as volume counts. If a volume count has not been kept, it may be estimated through sampling a representative group of title records and determining the corresponding number of volumes, then extrapolating to the rest of the collection. As an alternative, an estimate may be made using the following formulae:

> 52 documents pieces per foot
> 10 "traditional" volumes per foot
> 5.2 documents pieces per volume

Include e-book units, as long as these e-books are owned or leased and have been cataloged by your library. Include electronic books purchased through vendors such as NetLibrary® or Books $24 \times 7$, and e-books that come as part of aggregate services. Include individual titles of e-book sets that are treated as individual reference sources. Include locally digitized electronic books and electronic theses and dissertations. Provide a footnote explaining how many e-books you are reporting, preferably by specifying the products and the number of titles in a note.

Include volumes purchased collectively where the cost is shared at the time of purchase.

If either formulas or sampling are used for deriving your count, please indicate in a footnote.
Question 1b. Volumes Added. Include only volumes cataloged, classified, and made ready for use. Include government documents if they have been included in the count of volumes on line 1a. Do not include as part of Volumes Added Gross any government documents or other collections (such as large gift collections or e-book packages) that were added to the collection as the result of a one time download or addition to the OPAC. Include these items in Volumes Held of the previous year (Line 1a) and provide a footnote explaining the revision of Line 1a.

Question 2. Monographic Volumes Purchased. Report number of volumes purchased; do not include volumes received or cataloged. Include all volumes for which an expenditure was made during 2007-2008, including volumes paid for in advance but not received during the fiscal year. Include monographs in series and continuations. Include e-books that fit the NetLibrary ${ }^{\circledR}$ model, i.e., electronic manifestations of physical entities and/or units; provide a footnote explaining how many e-books you are reporting, preferably by specifying the products and the number of titles. If only number of titles purchased can be reported, please report the data and provide an explanatory footnote.

Question 3: Basis of Volume Count. A physical count is a piece count; a bibliographic count is a catalog record count.
Questions 4-5. Serials. Use the following definition adapted from AACR2 for a serial:

> A bibliographic resource issued in a succession of discrete parts, usually bearing numbering, that has no predetermined conclusion. Examples of serials include journals, magazines, electronic journals, continuing directories, annual reports, newspapers, and monographic series.

Report the total number of unique serial titles, NOT SUBSCRIPTIONS, that you currently acquire and to which you provide access. Do not include duplicate counts of serial titles. Report each title once, regardless of how many subscriptions or means of access you provide for that title. Exclude unnumbered monographic and publishers' series. Electronic serials acquired as part of a bundle or an aggregated package should be counted at the title level, even if they are not cataloged, as long as the title is made accessible directly by the library (e.g., through a finding aid). If access is provided only through the overall platform or aggregator, do not report the individual titles but count the package as a single title.

Question 4a. Serial titles currently purchased. In the case of consortial agreements, count under 'serial titles currently purchased' those titles for which the library pays any amount from its budgeted expenditures. Include all titles that are part of bundles or aggregated packages, even if your library makes a partial payment for access to those titles. If a purchased title includes electronic access to the title, count that title ONLY ONCE (DEDUPED) as electronic only. If a database includes full-text and abstracted titles, the number of full-text titles can be counted.

Question 4b. Serial titles: Not Purchased. Report other titles that your library receives and does not pay for directly under 'serial titles received but not purchased.' These titles may include exchanges, gifts, etc.

If serial titles have been purchased through a consortium whose budget is centrally funded and independent from the library's budget, these serials should be reported under 'serial titles currently received but not purchased.' If within a purchased or aggregated package it cannot be determined that some titles are not purchased, report all titles as purchased.

Freely accessible titles are those your library provides direct access to via cataloging records or through online serial lists of other finding aids.

To the extent possible, report all government document serials separately in 4b.iv.
If separate counts of non-purchased and purchased serial titles are not available, report only the total number of serial titles currently purchased and received on line 4 , and report $\mathrm{U} / \mathrm{A}$ for lines 4 a and 4 b .

Question 6. Microforms. Report the total number of physical units: reels of microfilm, microcards, and microprint and microfiche sheets. Include all government documents in microform; provide a footnote if documents are excluded.

Question 7. Government documents. Report the total number of physical units (pieces) of government documents in paper format that have not been counted elsewhere. Include local, state, national, and international documents; include documents purchased from a commercial source if shelved with separate documents collections and not counted above. Include serials and monographs. To estimate pieces from a measurement of linear feet, use the formula 1 foot $=52$ pieces and indicate in a footnote that the count is based on this estimate. Exclude microforms and non-print formats such as maps or CD-ROMs. Adjust line 1a, i.e., last year's Volumes Held, and provide a footnote if you are adding records to the OPAC for government documents previously held but not counted as part of Volumes Held (line 1a).

Question 8. Computer files. Include the number of pieces of computer-readable disks, tapes, CD-ROMs, and similar machine-readable files comprising data or programs that are locally held as part of the library's collections available to library clients. Examples are US Census data tapes, sample research software, locally mounted databases, and reference tools on CD-ROM, tape or disk. Exclude bibliographic records used to manage the collection (i.e., the library's own catalog in machine-readable form), library system software, and microcomputer software used only by the library staff.

Question 9. Manuscripts and archives. Include both manuscripts and archives measured in linear feet.
Question 10. Cartographic materials. Include the numbers of pieces of two- and three-dimensional maps and globes. Include satellite and aerial photographs and images.

Question 11. Graphic materials. Include the number of pieces of prints, pictures, photographs, postcards, slides, transparencies, film strips, and the like.

Question 12. Audio materials. Include the number of pieces of audiocassettes, phonodiscs, audio compact discs, reel-to-reel tapes, and other sound recordings.

Question 13. Film and video materials. Include the number of pieces of motion pictures, videocassettes, video laser discs, and similar visual materials.

Questions 14-20. Expenditures. Report all expenditures of funds that come to the library from the regular institutional budget, and from sources such as research grants, special projects, gifts and endowments, and fees for service. (For question 17, include non-library funds; see instruction Q17.) Do not report encumbrances of funds that have not yet been expended. Canadian libraries should report expenditures in Canadian dollars. (For your information, if interested in determining figures in US dollars, divide Canadian dollar amounts by 1.0101, the average monthly noon exchange rate published in the Bank of Canada Review for the period July 2007-June 2008.) Please round figures to the nearest dollar.

Question15a. Monographs. Report expenditures for volumes purchased counted on line 2.

Question 15b. Serial titles. Report expenditures for serial titles counted on line 4a. Exclude unnumbered monographic and publishers' series, and encumbrances.

Question 15c. Other library materials. Include expenditures for all materials not reported in Questions 15a and 15b, e.g., backfiles of serials, charts and maps, audiovisual materials, manuscripts, etc. If expenditures for these materials are included in lines 15 a and/or 15 b and cannot be disaggregated, please report U/A and provide a footnote. Do not include encumbrances.

Question 15d. Miscellaneous expenditures. Include any other materials funds expenditures not included in questions $15 a-c$, e.g., expenditures for bibliographic utilities, literature searching, security devices, memberships for the purposes of publications, etc. Please list categories, with amounts, in a footnote. Note: If your library does not use materials funds for non-materials expenditures-i.e., if those expenditures are included in "Other Operating Expenditures"- report 0, not $\mathbf{U} / \mathbf{A}$, on line 15 d .

Question 16. Contract Binding. Include only contract expenditures for binding done outside the library. If all binding is done in-house, state this fact and give in-house expenditures in a footnote; do not include personnel expenditures. (This figure should also be reported in the 2007-2008 ARL Preservation Survey, question 7b.)

Questions 17. Salaries and wages. Exclude fringe benefits. If professional and support staff salaries cannot be separated, enter $\mathbf{U} / \mathbf{A}$, on lines 17 a and 17 b and enter total staff on line 17 .

Question 17c. Salaries and wages: Student Assistants. Report $100 \%$ of student wages regardless of budgetary source of funds. Include federal and local funds for work study students.

Question 19. Other operating expenditures. Exclude expenditures for buildings, maintenance, and fringe benefits.
Questions 21-25. Electronic expenditures. These items are intended to indicate what portion of your institution's total library expenditures are dedicated to electronic resources and services. Please use the Footnotes to indicate any electronic materials expenditures you believe not to be covered by these questions. Many expenditures recorded in these questions should have been included in Question 20, total library expenditures.
Question 21. One-time electronic resource purchases. Report expenditures that are not current serials (i.e. are nonsubscription, one-time, or monographic in nature) for software and machine-readable materials considered part of the collections. Examples include periodical backfiles, literature collections, one-time costs for JSTOR membership, etc. Expenditures reported here may be derived from any of the following categories: Monographs (Q15a), Other Library Materials (Q15c), Miscellaneous (Q15d), or Other Operating Expenditures (Q19).

Question 22. Ongoing electronic resource purchases. Report subscription expenditures (or those which are expected to be ongoing commitments) for serial publications whose primary format is electronic and for online searches of remote databases such as OCLC FirstSearch, DIALOG, Lexis-Nexis, etc. Examples include paid subscriptions for electronic journals and indexes/abstracts available via the Internet, CD-ROM serials, and annual access fees for resources purchased on a "one-time" basis, such as literature collections, JSTOR membership, etc. Not all items whose expenditures are counted here will be included in Serial titles currently received (Question 4) or Serials Expenditures (Question 15b).

Q23. Bibliographic Utilities, Networks, and Consortia. Because it is increasingly common for ARL Libraries to enter into consortial arrangements to purchase access to electronic resources, both "Library" and "External" expenditure blanks and instructions are provided. Please use a footnote to describe expenditures that you believe are not covered by the question, or situations that do not seem to fit the instructions.

Q23a. From internal library sources. Report expenditures paid by the Library for services provided by national, regional, and local bibliographic utilities, networks, and consortia, such as OCLC and RLG, unless for user database access and subscriptions, which should be reported in Questions 21 or 22 . Include only expenditures that are part of Other Operating Expenditures (Q19).

Q23b. From external sources. If your library receives access to computer files, electronic serials or search services through one or more centrally-funded system or consortial arrangements for which it does not pay fully and/or directly (for example, funding is provided by the state on behalf of all members), enter the amount paid by external bodies on its behalf. If the specific dollar amount is not known, but the total student FTE for the consortium and amount spent for the academic members are known, divide the overall amount spent by your institution's share of the total student FTE.

Q24. Computer hardware and software. Report expenditures from the library budget for computer hardware and software used to support library operations, whether purchased or leased, mainframe or microcomputer, and whether for staff or public use. Include expenditures for: maintenance; equipment used to run information service products when those expenditures can be separated from the price of the product; telecommunications infrastructure costs, such as wiring, hubs, routers, etc. Include only expenditures that are part of Other Operating Expenditures (Q19).

Q25. Document Delivery/Interlibrary Loan. Report expenditures for document delivery and interlibrary loan services (both borrowing and lending). Include fees paid for photocopies, costs of telefacsimile transmission, royalties and access fees paid to provide document delivery or interlibrary loan. Include fees paid to bibliographic utilities if the portion paid for interlibrary loan can be separately counted. Include only expenditures that are part of Miscellaneous Materials Expenditures (Q15d) or Other Operating Expenditures (Q19), and only for those ILL/DD programs with data recorded in Questions 34-35.

Questions 26. Personnel. Report the number of FTE (full-time equivalent) staff in filled positions, or positions that are only temporarily vacant. ARL defines temporarily vacant positions as positions that were vacated during the fiscal year for which ARL data were submitted, for which there is a firm intent to refill, and for which there are expenditures for salaries reported on line 17.

Include cost recovery positions and staff hired for special projects and grants, but provide an explanatory footnote indicating the number of such staff. If such staff cannot be included, provide a footnote. To compute full-time equivalents of part-time employees and student assistants, take the total number of hours per week (or year) worked by part-time employees in each category and divide it by the number of hours considered by the reporting library to be a full-time work week (or year). Round figures to the nearest whole numbers.

Question 26a. Professional Staff. Since the criteria for determining professional status vary among libraries, there is no attempt to define the term "professional." Each library should report those staff members it considers professional, including, when appropriate, staff who are not librarians in the strict sense of the term, for example computer experts, systems analysts, or budget officers.

Question 26b. Support Staff. Report the total FTE (see instruction 26) of staff not included in 26a.
Question 26c. Student Assistants. Report the total FTE (see instruction Q26) of student assistants employed on an hourly basis whose wages are paid from funds under library control or from a budget other than the library's, including federal work-study programs. Exclude maintenance and custodial staff.

Question 27. Number of staffed library service points. Count the number of staffed public service points in the main library and in all branch libraries reported in this inventory, including reference desks, information desks, circulation, current periodicals, reserve rooms, reprographic services (if staffed as a public facility), etc. Report the number of designated locations, not the number of staff.

Question 28. Number of weekly public service hours. Report an unduplicated count of the total public service hours per typical full-service week (i.e., no holidays or other special accommodations) across both main library and branches using the following method (corresponds to IPEDS): If a library is open from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday, it should report 40 hours per week. If several of its branches are also open during these hours, the figure remains 40 hours per week. Should Branch A also be open one evening from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m., the total hours during which users can find service somewhere within the system becomes 42 hours per week. If Branch B is open the same hours on the same evening, the count is still 42 , but if Branch B is open two hours on another evening, or remains open two hours later, the total is then 44 hours per week. Exclude 24 -hour unstaffed reserve or similar reading rooms. The maximum total is 168 (i.e., a staffed reading room open 7 days per week, 24 hours per day).

Questions 29-30. Instruction. Sampling based on a typical week may be used to extrapolate TO A FULL YEAR for Questions 29 and 30. Please indicate if responses are based on sampling.

Question 29. Presentations to Groups. Report the total number of sessions during the year of presentations made as part of formal bibliographic instruction programs and through other planned class presentations, orientation sessions, and tours. If the library sponsors multi-session or credit courses that meet several times over the course of a semester, each session should be counted. Presentations to groups may be for either bibliographic instruction, cultural, recreational, or educational purposes. Presentations both on and off the premises should be included as long as they are sponsored by the library. Do not include meetings sponsored by other groups using library meeting rooms. Do not include training for library staff; the purpose of this question is to capture information about the services the library provides for its clientele. Please indicate if the figure is based on sampling.

Question 30. Participants in Group Presentations. Report the total number of participants in the presentations reported on line 29. For multi-session classes with a constant enrollment, count each person only once. Personal, one-to-one instruction in the use of sources should be counted as reference transactions on line 31. Please indicate if the figure is based on sampling. Use a footnote to describe any special situations.

Question 31. Reference Transactions. Report the total number of reference transactions. A reference transaction is > an information contact that involves the knowledge, use, recommendations, interpretation, or instruction in the use of one or more information sources by a member of the library staff. The term includes information and referral service. Information sources include (a) printed and nonprinted material; (b) machine-readable databases (including computer-assisted instruction); (c) the library's own catalogs and other holdings records; (d) other libraries and institutions through communication or referral; and (e) persons both inside and outside the library. When a staff member uses information gained from previous use of information sources to answer a question, the transaction is reported as a reference transaction even if the source is not consulted again.

If a contact includes both reference and directional services, it should be reported as one reference transaction. Include virtual reference transactions (e.g., e-mail, WWW form, chat). Duration should not be an element in determining whether a transaction is a reference transaction. Sampling based on a typical week may be used to extrapolate TO A FULL YEAR for Question 31. Please indicate if the figure is based on sampling.

EXCLUDE SIMPLE DIRECTIONAL QUESTIONS. A directional transaction is an information contact that facilitates the logistical use of the library and that does not involve the knowledge, use, recommendations, interpretation, or instruction in the use of any information sources other than those that describe the library, such as schedules, floor plans, and handbooks.

Questions 32-33. Circulation. For Question 32, count the number of initial circulations during the fiscal year from the general collection for use usually (although not always) outside the library. Do not count renewals. Include circulations to and from remote storage facilities for library users (i.e., do not include transactions reflecting transfers or stages of technical processing). Count the total number of items lent, not the number of borrowers.

For Question 33, report total circulation for the fiscal year including initial transactions reported on line 32 and renewal transactions. Exclude reserve circulations; these are no longer reported.

Questions 34-35. Interlibrary Loans. Report the number of requests for material (both returnables and non-returnables) provided to other libraries on line 34 and the number of filled requests received from other libraries or providers on line 35 . On both lines, include originals, photocopies, and materials sent by telefacsimile or other forms of electronic transmission. Include patron-initiated transactions. Exclude requests for materials locally owned and available on the shelves or electronically. Do not include transactions between libraries covered by this questionnaire.

Questions 36. PhD Degrees. Report the number awarded during the 2007-2008 fiscal year. Please note that only the number of PhD degrees are to be counted. Statistics on all other advanced degrees (e.g., DEd, DPA, MD, JD) should not be reported in this survey. If you are unable to provide a figure for PhDs only, please add a footnote.

Question 37. PhD Fields. For the purposes of this report, PhD fields are defined as the specific discipline specialties enumerated in the US Department of Education's Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS) "Completions"

Survey. Although the IPEDS form requests figures for all doctoral degrees, only fields in which PhDs are awarded should be reported on the ARL questionnaire. Any exceptions should be footnoted.

Question 38. Instructional Faculty. Instructional faculty are defined by the US Department of Education as members of the instruction/research staff who are employed full-time as defined by the institution, including faculty with released time for research and faculty on sabbatical leave.

Full-time counts generally exclude faculty who are employed to teach fewer than two semesters, three quarters, two trimesters, or two four-month sessions; replacements for faculty on sabbatical leave or leave without pay; faculty for preclinical and clinical medicine; faculty who are donating their services; faculty who are members of military organizations and paid on a different pay scale from civilian employees; academic officers, whose primary duties are administrative; and graduate students who assist in the instruction of courses. Please be sure the number reported, and the basis for counting, are consistent with those for 2006-2007 (unless in previous years faculty were counted who should have been excluded according to the above definition). Please footnote any discrepancies.

Questions 39-42. Enrollment. US libraries should use the Fall 2007 enrollment figures reported to the Department of Education on the Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System survey. Please check these figures against the enrollment figures reported to ARL last year to ensure consistency and accuracy. Note: In the past, the number of part-time students reported was FTE; the number now reported to IPEDS is a head count of part-time students. Canadian libraries should note that the category "graduate students" as reported here includes all post-baccalaureate students.

FOOTNOTES

Please consult the data entry Web interface (www.arlstatistics.org) for a copy of last year's footnotes. These can be found under "Data Repository" after you login into www.arlstatistics.org. Explanatory footnotes will be included with the published statistics. Reporting libraries are urged to record in the footnote section any information that would clarify the figures submitted, e.g., the inclusion and exclusion of branch campus libraries (see the "General Instructions" for definition of branch campus libraries). Please make an effort to word your footnotes in a manner consistent with notes appearing in the published report, so that the ARL Office can interpret your footnotes correctly.

Submit the completed questionnaire

ARL Statistics Worksheet 2007-2008

This worksheet is designed to help you plan your submission for the 2007-2008 ARL Statistics. The figures on this worksheet should be similar to those in the "Summary" page of your web form, except in cases where data are unavailable. If an exact figure is unavailable, use "NA/ $\mathrm{UA}^{\prime}$. If the appropriate answer is zero or none, use " 0 ."

CALIFORNIA, BERKELEY

Volumes held June 30,2007 revised to $10,897,766$. This total includes Tier 1 e-book volumes purchased collectively with University of California Partner Libraries: 473,819 (Tier 1: Acta Sanctorum, Literature Online, Oxford Scholarship Online, Early English books Online, Eighteenth Century Collections Online, Safari Tech Books, Schillers Werke). Additionally, the Berkeley campus e-book volumes total 73,857 (Tier 3: ebrary and netLibrary selections, World Bank E Library, Humanities/History E Books Project, Oxford Scholarship Online Special Subjects, Congressional Hearings Retrospective A). The Berkeley campus has independently acquired 113, 396 e-book volumes (ebrary selections, netLibrary selections, World Ban Elibrary, Humanities/History E Books Project, Oxford Scholarship Online Special Subjects, Congressional Hearing Retrospective A).

We used a combination of both physical and bibliographic counts to respond to this question. The source of our information for supplying volume counts has historically been a physical count created by aggregating annual incremental reports by library unit managers. However, these last 2 years (2006-2008) ebooks were added to the question, and we used a bibliographic count for these.
Counts for e-books acquired through collective purchase are generated by our system-wide cataloging division. Counts for e-books acquired through independent campus-level purchase are derived from our local inventory managed by the Electronic Resources
Librarian through an Electronic Resource Finder (ERF).

CALIFORNIA, DAVIS

1bi Previous reporting did not include e-books that are part of the collection and cataloged locally.
1bii Extensive weeding was conducted in the 2006-2007 reporting period.
4-4ai A revised methodology for counting purchased serial titles was used for the 2007-2008 reporting period.
4b-4biii A revised methodology for counting non-purchased serial titles was used for the 2007-2008 reporting period.

CALIFORNIA, IRVINE

1a
This figure was revised to 2,973,408. Per ARL instructions, this figure includes 195,487 e-books that were added during 2007-2008.

CALIFORNIA, LOS ANGELES

1a Volumes held June 30, 2007 revised to 8,282,525.
4 This figure is repeated from the previous year (2006-2007). Because of the process of identifying a process to dedupe and capture data in compliance with the new definition and due to this transition we are publishing the same figure as last year (2006-2007). UCLA has not yet determined accurate counts for subscription titles that are obtained without cost via the internet, since these titles do not have order records in UCLA's bibliographic database. Because there is a significant increase in these titles, UCLA is devoting efforts to capturing this information in a systematic and reliable way for the next annual statistical report.
38 Number of full-time faculty has increased to 1,948.

CALIFORNIA, RIVERSIDE

4a
The rationale for the significant difference in serials statistics for the University of California, Riverside Libraries for 2007-2008 is: a) an increase in serial titles resulting from consortial co-investments; b) an increase in the number of government documents serial titles that have been entered into our cataloging records.

CALIFORNIA, SAN DIEGO

Library branches included: Arts Library, Center for Library & Instructional Computing Services, International Relations & Pacific Studies Library, Mandeville Special Collections Library, Science & Engineering Library, Scripps Institution of Oceanography Library, Social Sciences & Humanities Library.
Biomedical Library and Medical Center Library are included in the ARL Survey for Health Sciences Libraries.
1 E-book figures are not cataloged into a specific library since they are not site specific. Their numbers are all reported on the Main Library Survey, Geisel Library.
1a Volumes held June 30, 2007 revised to 3,125,499.
17 Increase in salaries is due to several high salaried positions created and filled, coupled with a reduction in turnover of positions.
17c Although student FTE decreased, actual expense increased due to the minimum wage increase, additional duty increases, and the addition of a Student Security Unit.

28 Weekly public service hours extends to 168 during finals week each quarter when we do have a staffed library open 24 hours, 7 days a week.

31 Includes 4,412 virtual reference transactions.

CALIFORNIA, SANTA BARBARA

28 2006-2007's figure multiplied the number of weekly public service hours times the number of service hours for each service point, making it inaccurate. 2007-2008's figure reflects the actual number of weekly public service hours.

CASE WESTERN RESERVE

CASE WESTERN RESERVE, cont.

1a Volumes held June 30, 2007 revised to 2,735,459. An adjustment was made to the Volumes Held 6/30/07 figure to include e-books that have been added to the collection (including: Early American Imprints, Series I and II; EEBO, EEBO-TCP, Safari Tech Books Online and Reference resources).
9 This number includes the University Archives, which now reports to the Kelvin Smith Library (Main Library).
15d This expenditure includes: memberships for ARL, SPARC, CNI, CLIR, OhioLINK and ICPSR. Also included is ARL Conference on Diversity, ARL LibQUAL+® Survey and theses charges from ProQuest.

CENTER FOR RESEARCH LIBRARIES

17a The increase in Professional salaries from 2006-2007 to 2007-2008 was mainly due to the addition of a few higher paying jobs, along with internal promotions (from support staff to professional staff).
26b Total FTE was 18.5 but question requires an integer. In order to have a total of 61 FTE this figure was rounded down.
26c
Total FTE was 12.5, but question requires an integer. In order to have a total of 61 FTE, this figure was rounded up.

CHICAGO

1a Volumes held 30 June 2007 revised to $8,351,863$. Increase due in part to addition of MARC records for monographic titles available in databases and addition of MARC records for USGPO electronic monographs.

2 Includes 36,414 electronic monographs purchased in 2007-2008; does not include monographs for which we previously had access and had counted as added, but added MARC records for in 2007-2008.

4 This increase (over 2006-2007) can be attributed to a growth in available free e-journals. This is due to an expansion in the number of available and cataloged free e-journals and the addition of MARC records for USGPO online documents.
$4 b \quad$ This increase can be attributed to the addition of MARC records for government documents (almost 11,000) and an addition to the number of freely accessible journals added to our catalogs (about 5,000).

8-13 Excludes unprocessed and partially processed items.
23a Includes standard ongoing operating costs only.
23b This is an estimated figure.
Effective 2007-2008, circulation figures exclude departmental charges that had previously been included. Had we not made this adjustment, the circulation figure would have been 458,057.
Includes 486 requests filled by the Center for Research Libraries.
In previous years we understood the request to cover only those full-time instructional/research staff with faculty status. In 20072008 we determined that we should count all full-time instructional/research staff without regard to faculty status. An additional 410 personnel were added as a consequence of our more inclusive definition.

CINCINNATI

All University of Cincinnati Libraries located on its central campus are included.
Two branch libraries on two-year college campuses, Raymond Walters College and Clermont College, are not included in the ARL statistics.

1a Volumes held June 30, 2007 revised to 3,547,887. Adjustments: net adjustment is an adjustment of 129,067 volumes. 2,705 net Gov Docs adjustment-- 3,357 Government documents volumes cataloged retroactively; 652 volumes subtracted for Government documents cleanup. 166,278 volumes added for batch loads of e-resources ( 1 time, of 5,000 or more): ECCO, NBER, ChadwyckHealey LION. 39,916 volumes withdrawn in a lost, missing cleanup of stacks.
3 Figure is historically based upon a bibliographic count. Additions and deletions based on physical count.
Notes on the serial counts; the serial count is by title, deduped, in a "cascading hierarchy": (1) Paid (1st electronic, then other format); A large majority of the substantial number of serial titles received via our consortium are paid via an index figure based upon titles owned when the relationship with the publisher began (therefore we considered them all paid). (2) Not purchased (the not purchased titles are not separated by electronic vs. print and other formats, but by source). (3) The Not-purchased titles in the Freely-accessible and Government documents categories have very little overlap, because of the strategy used to construct that the serial list, and then were deduped; however, numbers here are only the titles which have not already been included in the Paid category. (4) The Freely-accessible titles include the titles marked as "free" from Serials Solutions, so long as those same titles had not already been recorded in the paid Serials Solutions titles. (5) Some Government document titles are also included in Paid Serials Solutions aggregates, and not-purchased Government document titles could also be included in the free Serials Solutions titles.
7 Government documents not counted elsewhere are smaller because of retrospective cataloging of documents.
17 Part of difference in salaries total caused by $$ 88,000$ retirement payment made in 2006-2007 but not during 2007-2008.

1a Volumes held June 30, 2007 revised to 8,030,766. Change in volumes held June 30, 2007 reflects the fact that additional e-books were counted. Includes all e-books with records in the online catalog.
4 The count was calculated before the 2007-2008 definition was released, following the 2006-2007 definition. This is an estimate only. 8,700 were estimated to be non-current e-tittles. Includes numbered and unnumbered monographic series. Law print count includes non-serial continuations.

Volumes held June 30, 2007 revised to 3,964,901.
Volumes held June 30, 2007 revised to $8,030,766$. The main library undertook a project to eliminate materials no longer relevant to the institution's current curriculum.

Less physical materials to bind as a result of an increase in online and digital collections.
Slight decrease in FTE being reported for this time period. Fringe benefits are no longer being included in the salary expenditure figures, this accounts for the decrease in expenditure being reported between 2006-2007 and this reporting period (2007-2008).

Slight increase in FTE being reported for this time period. Increase in federal minimum wage scale has had an impact on student payroll.

Increased cost for goods and services for this reporting period (2007-2008).
Limited purchasing of electronic backfiles for 2007-2008.
Increased emphasis on electronic access to materials.
This figure reflects an increase in funding for equipment.
Increased expenditure in IMF fees as borrowing requests increase.
Library is engaged in an effort to reduce number of participants in each presentation in order to facilitate a more effective learning environment.

The number of users seeking out reference assistance has reduced. The number of library staffed hours at a designated reference service point have been reduced.

Information discovery tools are expanding and improving resulting in our users requesting additional sources, many of which are esoteric in nature, for their research that are not available from the libraries' exisiting collections.
Figures demonstrate an increase in applications and enrollment.

Count of serials titles was made using a different source this year (2007-2008), which we believe is more accurate.
Reduction due to large discard project.
40,42 Part-time enrollment is primarily non degree-seeking students. Undergraduate degree-seeking students are full-time by requirement. Graduate arts and sciences program part-time enrollment varies widely from year to year.

DELAWARE

1b-1bii Increase due to contrast with 2006-2007's data. In 2006-2007 the Medical Center Library and the Ford Business Library withdrew many volumes.

4, 4b Increased numbers for 2007-2008 are due to improved data compilation in this area.
4bii The increase is due to this data being unavailable in 2006-2007. This is an estimate based on SFX data.
4biii Increase due to improved data compilation in this area for 2007-2008.
12 Increase due to increased collecting in this area.
15c Decreased figures due to decreased spending in this area.
17a Increase due to increased expenditures in this area.
19 Increase due to increased expenditures in this area including a computer hardware "refresh" for all staff members in the main library.
21 Decrease apparent because there was an increase in funding in this area due to Strategic Initiative Project funding supporting a one time purchase of electronic backfiles of serials.
Volumes held June 30, 2007 revised to 2,741,215.
ARL's new methodology that counts unique titles was fully implemented for the 2007-2008 statistics.
Excludes the University Archives, which are not administered by the Library.
Library's automated system does not differentiate between initial loans and renewals.

Volumes held June 30, 2007 revised to 5,849,608.

The main library adopted an e-only exceptions policy for serials. The policy is available here: http://library.duke.edu/about/ collections/eonly.html. This adoption resulted in transferring many serial subscriptions from print to electronic.
Increase due to increased expenditures in this area including a computer hardware "refresh" for all staff members in the main library.
Increase due to increased expenditures in this area.

DUKE, cont.

29-30 Decrease due to decreased participation in this area in 2007-2008.

36
Increase due to normal fluctuation in this area.

EMORY

Includes the Health Sciences Center, Hugh MacMillan (Law), Oxford College, and Pitts Theology libraries, as well as libraries at Grady Hospital and the Medical School.

1a
Volumes held June 30, 2007 revised to 3,296,754.
This was reported incorrectly for Main Library in 2006-2007. Should have reported 15,288.
15b In 2007-2008, this was paid by actual invoice rather than prepaying estimated invoice, and fund accounting practices also changed.
This was reported incorrectly for Theology Library in 2005-2006. Reported number was 19,850, but should have been 898.
Faculty counts have varied because of Health Science Library practices associated with counts of clinical faculty, and whether separate Medical School faculty numbers have been accounted for in years prior to 2007-2008.

39-40 Numbers for 2005-2006 and 2006-2007 were over-reported. Main number now adjusted with totals for Health Sciences, Law, Oxford, and Theology to equal Registrar's Fall 2007 totals.

41 Numbers for 2005-2006 and 2006-2007 were over-reported. Because Health Sciences provides student count separately, requires main to subtract that number from Registrar's report to provide correct totals.

FLORIDA

Includes all Gainesville, Florida campus libraries: Marston (Science), Architecture/Fine Arts, Journalism, Music, Education, Law, and Health Science Center. Also includes the Health Science library facility in Jacksonville, Florida.

FLORIDA STATE

Library branches included: Goldstein College of Information Library; Allen Music Library; Pepper Center Library; Panama City, Panama; Panama City, Florida Library; Ringling Museum of Art Library.

1a Volumes held June 30, 2007 revised to $2,803,491$. The number for 2007-2008 (1a) is different than the number for the 2006-2007 question (1) due to a mathematical error in the 2006-2007 report. The correct number for (1) in 2006-2007 is 2,989,700.
15c Increase in this category is due to the inclusion of previously excluded categories: Database access and e-books.
23b 2006-2007's number was based on an incorrect formula. The figure for 2006-2007 should have been 463,059.
29 This number is almost double 2006-2007's figure. This is due to the large increase in instruction sessions at the Main Library. Additionally, this is due to a much better relationship with partners and establishing new relationships with partners; especially the First Year Experience (FYE) for incoming students.
31 The drop in reference transactions is due to an error made in the 2006-2007 survey. That number included directional transactions which should not be included in that category. The correction was made in this survey.
36 The 2006-2007 figure is incorrect. It should be 631. That puts the increase within the normal range.

15c These are one-time purchases of databases and backfiles. In 2006-2007 we added this expenditure to monographs (15a).

GEORGIA TECH

Includes the Architecture Library.
17a This number is significantly lower than in years prior to 2007-2008 as it reflects an attempt to more closely align it with the total staff count as reported in Question (26). Due to the campus accounting system, the number previously reported included some support staff.

17b This number is significantly higher than in years prior to 2007-2008 due to the change reported in footnote for (17a).

HAWAII
Library branches included: University of Hawaii at Manoa Library (main) housed in two buildings: Hamilton Library, Sinclair Library. Also includes the Health Sciences Library, and William S. Richardson School of Law Library.

HAWAII, cont.

$4 \mathrm{~b} \quad$ Of the total of serials received but not purchased, 7,533 are electronic, but can not be further disaggregated into consortial or freely accessible. Therefore, the sub-parts of this question have been marked UA/NA.
10 Increase due to cartographic materials returned from processing and receipt of gift materials related to October 2004 flood.
Excludes personnel hired with special flood recovery funds: $$ 561,798$ for professional and support staff and $$ 52,950$ for student assistants.

38-42 Hawaii's faculty and student population figures published in the 2006-2007 ARL Statistics for (38)-(42) were incorrect. The correct numbers are: (38) 1,301; (39) 14,027; (40) 2,190; (41) 3,165; (42) 994.

HOUSTON

All figures are as of 08/31/2008.
Library branches included: Architecture & Art Library, Music Library, Weston A. Pettey Optometry Library, and the Pharmacy Library.
1bi The number of volumes added is smaller for 2007-2008. At the end of this year (2007-2008), available funds were transferred to purchase more electronic resources.
4 We began using SerialsSolutions during 2007-2008 and feel this has given us a much better count of the number of serials.
4ai This is the number of unique journal titles shown in SerialsSolutions minus consortial titles, minus freely accessible titles.
4aii
This number has been de-duped against the electronic titles.
4bi
Represents the number of unique titles in our TexShare databases as reported in the SerialsSolutions overlap analysis.
4bii Individual open access titles plus Directory of Open Access Journals titles.
Expenditures for binding increased as the library caught up with a binding backlog.
The difference between 2006-2007 and 2007-2008 total expenditures is due to a planned carry-over from 2006-2007. In 2007-2008, funds were expended for compact shelving, furniture and other planned expenses.
The library has made a concerted effort to add electronic materials in lieu of print expenditures.
Increased expenditures related to addition of SerialsSolutions and other increased costs.
Increased expenditures are for hardware and software purchases for our Learning Commons-- a new service offered by the library.
The library changed the way it counts reference questions. Previously, staff were asked to count all reference transactions for a short period of time (one week) and a formula was used to calculate a yearly figure. During 2006-2007, staff began counting every reference question. This was not done for the entire year, so the numbers that covered the same time period as the previous year's sampling were used in the same formula to calculate the figure. There may have been some decrease because all transactions were not counted.

Included are Kent State branches (Ashtabula, Geauga, East Liverpool, Salem, Stark, Trumbull, and Tuscarawas) and campus libraries: Architecture, Chemistry/Physics, Fashion, Map, Mathematics/Computer science, Music.

4 Serial titles are not deduplicated.
$4 a, 15 b \quad$ The numbers reported represent an estimate and are not deduplicated. Serials have been difficult to deduplicate by title rather than by subscription since serials now come in multiple and differing formats. This estimate in serial titles has resulted in an increased number of serials, but a reduction in the expenditures for serials. Thus, our unit price for serials purchased may be unrealistically low.

29
Library orientation "tour" is now offered online, asynchronously, and is not included in this count.

Also reported under Miscellaneous Materials Expenditures (15d) and Bibliographic Utilities (23).
Permanent staff are reported as "Professional" or "Support staff" only within the Library Services service unit. All other staff are reported as "Professional," including financial staff, human resources specialists, and information technology staff.

LOUISVILLE

Included: Main Library, Medical Library, University Archives, Music Library, Art Library, and the Law Library.
The medical and law libraries data have been aggregated into the main library's figures. Louisville did not submit separate law and medical library surveys for this period (2007-2008).

9 University of Louisville libraries serve as the central archive for the entire University of Louisville system. The reason for the large increase in the 2007-2008 manuscript collection figure is because the routine destruction of non-permanent university records has not been performed recently. Usually, non-essential materials are routinely destroyed every year, but this has not been done for the last several years because of staff shortages.

Does not include any libraries from the Dearborn or Flint UM (University of Michigan) campuses.
1a Volumes held June 30, 2007 revised to 9,075,625. This number does not agree with the "Volumes held June 30, 2007" reported in the 2006-2007 ARL statistics because it includes 421,820 e-books that were held at that time, but not included in the definition of the volume count for that year. Additionally, this includes 234,583 digitizations of volumes in the public domain (and hence available full text) that were added to the HathiTrust digital repository in 07-08 and which are accessible through our catalog.
1bi This number includes 129,433 physical volumes and as well as e-books added during the year 2007-2008.
4 Owing to the way we keep our records, we cannot break down our serials into these categories while still de-duping by ISSN. Catalogued serials with ISSNs have been de-duped within and across libraries, and the duplication rate in this category was $3.6 \%$. The reported figure also includes 19,659 cataloged serials without ISSNs and 21,294 serials which have not been cataloged; neither of these categories have been de-duped.

We no longer count microform by physical unit. Our much recent count by that method was 8,445,189 reported in 2006-2007. This number remains reasonably accurate as we acquire very little material in this form anymore and we do not withdraw any of it.
15c Includes the total library expenditures for Clements Library, which are not sub-divided into the categories listed.

MICHIGAN STATE

4biii
Breakdown between print serials and print government documents is not available.
11 Breakdown by material type is not available. Total audio-visual items for all included libraries is 869,236.
15c Change reflects the fact that in 2006-2007 this category was high due to purchases of e-serial backsets.
15d Increase in use of collections funds for bibliographic utilities, interlibrary loan subsidy, search enhancements, etc.
Increase is due to more accurate reporting of costs in all departments. 2006-2007's figure was under-reported.
Decrease in staffing represents vacant positions, not reduction of available positions.
31 Significant decrease may be partly because of adoption of software for recording statistics leading to more accurate reporting and fewer estimates.

31a Counts from some service points may be estimated.

17c Two branches of the University of Montreal library system reported salaries for library student assistants; however, in order for the totals to properly aggregate their responses have been marked NA/UA. The Ecole Polytechnique branch reported $51,697 (CAD) and the HEC Montreal branch reported $$ 112,916$ (CAD) in student assistant salaries.
23a A credit was received which was greater than the expenditures. The answer is in fact: 3,046 (École Polytechnique de Montréal).

15a Monograph purchases have reduced significantly due to a change in our approval plan and due to the stress that serials place on the remaining materials budget. Increasingly, more money is devoted to serials while monograph purchases decrease.
$15 \mathrm{c}-15 \mathrm{~d} \quad$ This large reduction is the result of monies being heavily devoted to serials. The cost and inflation rate of serials are not in step with our budget.

Volumes held June 30, 2007 revised to 3,167,709.
Due to budget cuts our materials budget has been slashed; therefore, the result would be fewer materials were acquired or purchased.
Budget cuts account for less monies available to purchase of materials, especially monographs.
Because of physical space needs within the libraries there has been more emphasis on weeding. In addition, more emphasis has been placed on database maintenance and one result is that more volumes being withdrawn than in the past.
Due to budget cuts, the monographs have been severely slashed to make up for the serials costs which are clearly out of pace with our materials budget.
Because our materials budget has been slashed we fully expect these figures will continue to decrease.
aii Despite the budget cuts, we continue to purchase more serials as needed.
Decrease is due to the cancellation of print from one publisher that provides a large number of content.
In 2007-2008 we have embarked on a large project to claim/inactivate titles; this project may account for the decrease in titles received.

Faculty seemed more inclined to use film and video more in the classroom; as a result the library is purchasing more and more of these items to support the curriculum. This appears to be a trend.

Less funds have been devoted to contract binding because we are purchasing less print serials. This appears to be a trend.
The libraries has been canceling print subscriptions in lieu of electronic serials; monies were used from other sources to increase support in this area.

One major reason for this decrease is the struggle to keep pace with inflation. As a result, ongoing electronic resource purchases will most likely decrease. in previous years, included everything purchased through the Nebraska Library Commission (even if UNL Libraries used its own funds) and therefore the amount for 2006-2007 was about $$ 455,670$. For 2007-2008, only items that were paid for by the Nebraska Library Commission were included, so now we have a lower figure. If the databases we paid for had been included in 2007-2008, then the figure would have been closer to the amount listed in 2006-2007.

2006-2007 statistics represent a year that was uncharacteristically low. 2007-2008 is actually a more consistent number for these purchases.

The services points have not increased at UNL; however, the way we count them has changed. We now count the Scholarly Communications, Student Union, Geology Reference, and Math Reference desks as service points.
The increase in instruction is due to demand; more faculty are requesting instruction.
The increase is due to class size; more instruction was offered to larger classes.
This appears to be a trend; the reference transactions are decreasing annually. We can speculate that our users increasingly rely on online search engines (Google) for some information that was formerly acquired from the reference desk.
This increase is the reduction of acquisitions; we are not buying as much so we have to get the items from other libraries. Secondly, our marketing has improved. We have been promoting our interlibrary loan services more widely. The fact that full-time instructional faculty has increased may also explain this increase.

NEW MEXICO

4 Serial counts nearly doubled due to the following factors: 1) $1,827,541 in insurance funds were used to replace fire-damaged materials including databases with full text. The library was able to purchase more titles than were lost in the fire. 2) The library was able to purchase bundled packages through special consortial arrangements, resulting in the acquisition of additional journals. 3) Coding improvements allowed for more accurate counts of all journals including government documents. 4) The library conducted a project to replace print journals with electronic versions, when possible.
8 This increase is related to the purchase/licensing by the University of New Mexico's (UNM) slide library of 28,000 digital image files along with their annual cataloging of 37,753 images.

13 2007-2008 count increased due to a special purchase of a local vendor's video inventory.
15b $\quad $ 1,827,541$ in insurance funds were used to replace fire-damaged materials including databases with full text.
15c The UNM slide library made significant, one-time investments in licensing and electronic resources (ARTstor and other digital image purchases and licensing). This was possible through expending unused/vacant salary lines.
17c All UNM libraries increased their student budgets significantly in part due to increases in minimum wage.
21 One-time electronic resource purchases increased by $38 \%$ because of the following two reasons: 1) The UNM slide library made significant, one-time investments in licensing and electronic resources (ARTstor and other digital image purchases and licensing). This was possible through expending unused/vacant salary lines. 2) $$ 1,827,541$ in insurance funds was used to replace firedamaged materials including databases with full text.

22
All UNM libraries increased their on-going electronic resource purchases. This appears to be a national trend. University Libraries also conducted a project to replace print journals with electronic versions, when possible.

NEW YORK

All figures are as of 08/31/2008.
Library branches included: Bobst Library; Institute of Fine Arts (IFA) Library; Real Estate Institute (REI) Library; Courant Institute of Mathematical Sciences (CIMS) Library; Institute for the Study of the Ancient World (ISAW) Library; Law School Library; Medical School and Dental School Libraries.
1a Volumes held June 30, 2007 revised to 4,988,264. The number of e-books in 2006-2007 was 503,764 and increased to 537,022 in 20072008, thereby increasing the volumes held at the beginning of the year by 33,258.
1bi 2006-2007's gross volumes added count was incorrect and excluded some volumes processed by the Acquisitions department.
1bii Previous years' withdrawals were inflated by weeding projects implemented to move materials offsite that resulted in a large number of withdrawals. No such project was launched in 2007-2008 because of time restraints caused by the 2007-2008 ILS migration.
2 In the 2007-2008 year, the monographs department was not fully staffed, which resulted in fewer processing of orders. Additionally, monograph orders were not processed for two months of the year during the implementation phase of our recent ILS migration.
4bi In 2007-2008 a concerted effort was made to provide more access to free serials via SFX as compared to prior years.
In 2007-2008 there was a decrease in orders due to the ILS migration creating a temporary slow down in the ordering workflow.
15d In 2007-2008 manuscript purchases increased from $62,000 to $236,000.
Increased vendor costs for offsite storage in 2007-2008; increased spending on library refurbishment projects.
Major purchasing of one-time resources was focused more on electronic materials in 2007-2008.
The increase in ongoing e-resources purchases in 2007-2008 is a reflection of the continued transition in serials purchases from print to electronic.
Computer hardware/software costs went up in 2007-2008 due to an ILS system migration and corresponding vendor costs.
The ILL service for users increased from 2006-2007 to 2007-2008 and fees increased correspondingly (OCLC ShaRes fees increased in 2007-2008 by $$ 31,000$ ).

The decrease in 2007-2008 represents a general trend of decreasing in-person reference service.
The decrease in circulations in 2007-2008 was caused by a decrease in renewals due to increasing the circulation period for M.A. students, our heaviest renewers.

34-35 Better exposure of records due to improved electronic resources; our institution is a member of RAPID consortium, which has allowed quicker fulfillment of orders.

NORTH CAROLINA

Library branches included: University Library, Health Sciences Library, Institute of Marine Sciences Library and the Law Library.

This includes government documents.
Volumes held June 30, 2007 revised to 6,412,105. Updated to reflect 272,901 e-books cataloged in 2007-2008. Health Sciences Library reduced by 15,161 volumes to correct flawed count in 2006-2007.

Volumes added during year 2007-2008 (gross and net) omits e-books added to main library during year. Only end-of-year snapshot is available. E-books added in 2007-2008 have been added to (1a) volumes held previous year.

Journal titles de-duped using ISSN as unique identifier. Titles without ISSNs were excluded entirely in order to eliminate items of a non-serial nature. This has likely also excluded some serial records lacking an ISSN, resulting in a possible undercount.

Increase in purchased titles due largely to new journal packages and improved counting methodologies. Journal packages purchased in 2007-2008 added about 5,200 titles. Includes: Springer Online Journal Archive (1,146), JSTOR packages (641), American Periodicals Series (1,520), America's Newspapers (1,380), Alt-Press Watch (206), and several smaller packages. In addition, more records were included in 2007-2008 because data was pulled from Serials Solutions; 2006-2007 report was based on local system, which has a higher percentage of records that lack ISSN.

The 32nd service point is open 3 days per week for 8 hours, which should not change the result.

There is an increase of 105,000 volumes added from the Wisconsin Historical Society Library (WHS), our University's library for American History. These items represent the WHS share of total number of titles $(220,000)$ of pre-1976 publications from the purchased MARCIVE GPO download that occurred in 2006-2007.
Volumes held June 30, 2007 revised to 7,933,636.
The count of e-books added jumped from the 17,914 previously reported to a new figure of 23,884 . This is because the earlier count was based on the bibliography records being coded as format "am" (language monographs). However, in the process of investigating how to count e-books we discovered that some vendors are coding their records as either "aa" (language mono component part) or "ad" (language mono subunit).
